ROBERT AND ALICE CAMPBELL ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP IN MUSIC AND THEATRE

Established 2006

ROBERT AND ALICE CAMPBELL

Longtime Pepperdine theatre lovers Robert and Alice Campbell grew up in small towns in Illinois. They met at the University of Illinois, where Alice received her juris doctorate and became an assistant professor and Robert received his bachelor of science in commerce. Wanting to combine their talents, the two married in 1955, and in 1964 the Campbells moved to Los Angeles. For decades, they owned and operated the mortgage banking firm Robert Campbell Company.

Many delightful evenings spent at Pepperdine theatre productions inspired Robert and Alice to establish the Robert and Alice Campbell Endowed Scholarship in Music and Theatre. Bob is on the board of directors of the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum, and Alice serves on the board of directors of the University of Illinois Foundation. Their granddaughter, Camille Davenport, graduated from Seaver College in 2003 to pursue a career in elementary education.

The Campbells' motto, "Find a need and fill it," has brought them success in both their business and personal endeavors and a vital, enduring scholarship to Pepperdine music and theatre students.
