

Guide to Finding Internships

Top ways to find an internship!

1. Family and Friends

- Come up with a list of Top 10 organizations in your geographic area

2. Internship Office Web Resources

- Online Internship Listings –
<http://seaver.pepperdine.edu/studentaffairs/careercenter/internships/search.htm>

3. Internet Search Engines

- For example, www.google.com
- Type in simple phrase such as “History Internship in Dallas”

4. Website of Professional Organizations of your Career Field

- For example, American Psychological Association

5. Chambers of Commerce

- Search for your area’s Chamber of Commerce
- Look at online member directory and follow links

6. Business Journal for your Region

- Search for Business Journal for your city
- Look for “TopList” or “Book of Lists” Online

7. Phone Book

- Yellow Pages – many nonprofits listed under “Association” section
- Blue Pages – human service agencies, local, state and federal government agencies listed here