Women Peacemaker's Panel

10/26 Noon-1:30pm (1 hour presentation followed by Q&A)

Hahn Fireside Room

Featuring four female activists: Wahu Kaara (Kenya), Manjula Pradeep (India), Claudette Werleigh (Haiti) & Rashad Zaydan (Iraq)

Join four distinguished women peacemakers from around the world as they share their experiences engaging in activism in hopes of bringing peace and justice in their respective countries. Pepperdine is honored to host Wahu Kaara (Kenya), Manjula Pradeep (India), Claudette Werleigh (Haiti), Rashad Zaydan (Iraq), the accomplished women selected for the 2011 Women Peacemakers Program through the Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace and Justice at the University of San Diego.

Meet Wahu Kaara (Kenya), Manjula Pradeep (India), Rashad Zaydan (Iraq), and Claudette Werleigh (Haiti), the accomplished women selected for the 2011 Women Peacemakers Program through the Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace and Justice at the University of San Diego.

Whether a pro-democracy activist, an international peacebuilder, an advocate for human rights, or a community rehabilitator, each panelist will shed light on best practices for community development.
