

PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY

Seaver College

of Letters, Arts, and Sciences

AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES

African American Studies is an interdisciplinary minor that provides students with a critical understanding of the historical, social and political thought and experience of African Americans. The minor is particularly appropriate for students majoring in the humanities, social sciences, education, business and communication and for students interested in graduate school.

MINOR

in African American Studies

A total of twenty-three to twenty-four units are required for a minor in African American Studies.

REQUIRED COURSES:

- AAS 200 Intro to African American Studies
- AAS 431 African American Cinema
- ENG 440 Topics in Literature: African American Literature
- SOC 450 Race and Ethnic Relations

CHOOSE TWO OF THE FOLLOWING:

- REL 301 Christianity and Culture: African-American Religion
- ENG 420 Major Writers (when topic is appropriate)
- ENG 440 Topics in Literature: Multicultural Women Writers
- WMST 441 Women and Film
- HIST 592 Selected Topics: African American History

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

HUMANITIES & TEACHER ED. DIVISION
24255 PACIFIC COAST HIGHWAY
MALIBU, CA 90263-4225
PHONE: (310) 506-4225