

SEAVER COLLEGE

OFFICE OF INTERCULTURAL AFFAIRS Intercultural Student Organization Liaison

Seaver College is a very dynamic community with a diverse population of people groups. One of the ways in which our diverse student populations choose to express themselves and educate the community is through student organizations. Currently, Seaver College has the following active intercultural student organizations:

1. Black Student Association (BSA)
2. Hawaii Club
3. Korean Student Association (KSA)
4. Latino Student Association (LSA)
5. Middle Eastern Peace and Awareness (MEPA)
6. Native American Student Association (NASA)
7. Pan-Chinese Student Union
8. Pepperdine Asian Student Association (PASA)
9. Pepperdine International Club (PIC)
10. Women's Leadership Forum

The Intercultural Student Organization Liaison will be responsible for coordinating educational programs that invite the broader community to learn about the vast array of backgrounds represented on our campus as well as provide a platform for these cultures to display their vitality and uniqueness. The ICA Office will lead and manage all educational programs pertaining to these student organizations, yet with the complete support and buy-in of the student organizations' E-Board. The Liaison and the student organizations' E-Board must maintain a strong relationship. Communication must be efficient and seamless. The Intercultural Student Organization Liaison will keep the ICA Director informed of all potential and upcoming educational programs. Most importantly, this person must be passionate about cultural diversity.

Other job-related tasks:

- Research and invite relevant speakers to campus
- Assist in coordinating the Week of Peace, Hope and Justice
- Assist with the multicultural recruitment efforts of the Admissions Office
- Assist ICA Director with new intern hire/training process
- Perform other related duties as assigned and when available
