PEPPERDINE
SEAVER COLLEGE

SEAVER Summarium

Compiled with the latest news, deadlines, and events, the Summarium seeks to act as a resource to our community as we enter a new week.

General Education Review Update

Dear Colleagues,

October will be an exciting month as we continue to lay the foundation for the GE Review! Now that each division has discussed the Seaver Student Graduate Profile I invite you to participate in one of the following interdisciplinary forums.

- Wednesday, October 16 at 12 PM in the Fireside Room
- Friday, October 18 at 4 PM in BPC 188
- Monday, October 21 at 4 PM in the Bettingen Conference Room (TAC 210)
- Tuesday, October 22 at 2 PM in BPC 188

These forums will allow the community to expand the list of attributes in the student profile as well as explore how some of these attributes overlap across disciplines. These forums will also help the GE Committee formulate guiding principles and learning outcomes as a basis of general education review.

We look forward to seeing you at the forums.

David Holmes
Associate Dean of Curriculum and General Education

Sabbatical Lunch Series

Don't miss your chance to support your colleagues by joining us on October 17 for the next sabbatical lunch. Bob Sexton will present "Writing Textbooks in the Digital and Subscription Era," and Candice Ortbals will present "Why Don't Women Rule the World?" Registration closes today, October 14, for those who would like lunch!

RSVP

Ethics of Predictive Analytics Workshop

All faculty are invited to a lunch discussion relating to our use of Navigate about "The Ethics of Predictive Analytics" on Wednesday, October 30th at 11:30

AM. Lunch will be provided.

Jarrod Schwartz, executive director of Just Communities, an organization that helps educators increase their understanding of how race, socioeconomic class, and individual and institutional bias affect teaching and learning, will be speaking at the workshop. RSVP ▶

OCT

16

Time Management Student Workshop

If you think your students could benefit from better time management, encourage them to attend the upcoming workshop, "Avoid Procrastination!
Manage your Time Effectively," hosted by the Student Success Center on Wednesday, October
16 at 6 PM.
Dinner is provided!

Research at Pepperdine

Every day our community is engaging in research and scholarship across disciplines.
Explore faculty stories and potential funding opportunities below.

Congratulations, Dr. Folkerts!

Michael Folkerts, associate professor of psychology, was awarded a grant funded by UCLA and National Institutes of Health to continue his research relating to athletic behavior after concussions.

Funding Opportunities

Dean's Research Grant	Funded through the Seaver College Dean's Office, the grants provide tenure or tenure-track faculty funding for a research activity. Applications due October 31. Learn more ▶
Community-Based Research Program (CBRP)	Internally funded, these grants support collaboration between faculty, students, and community members. Applications due October 31. Learn more ▶
Huntington Fellowships	The Huntington Library is seeking research projects in any phase of development surrounding the theme of improving undergrad research and more Applications due November 8. Learn More ▶

Clay Research Fellows

Funded through Clay Mathematics Institute, the fellowship is seeking individuals with potential to become leaders in research mathematics. Applications due November 9. Learn More ▶

For additional research news and resources, visit Research at Pepperdine.

Do you have a recent publication, achievement, or event you would like us to feature in the newsletter?

Submit a Story

%%_OpenImageURL%%