

PEPPERDINE SEAVER COLLEGE

SEAVER Summarium

Learn More About Navigate

Navigate News

Thank you to all who participated in Download for Donuts! From Sep. 9 through Sep. 11, over 4,100 donuts were delivered to classrooms. Please continue to encourage your students to use and download Navigate.

Learn how to sync your calendar and create an Academic Plan at this faculty Navigate training on September 19 or September 20 from 11:30 AM to 1:00 PM. The deadline to RSVP is this Tuesday!

Sabbatical Lunch Presentations

Colleagues Bert Ballard and Garrett Pendergraft will be presenting their sabbatical research Wednesday Sep. 18. If you wish to attend, please RSVP by the end of the day today.

Coming up next: Bob Sexton and Candace Ortbals on Thursday, Oct. 17.

RSVP

CENTER FOR TEACHING EXCELLENCE

CTE Presents Voice Training with Hollace Starr

RSVP

October 1 in CCB 140, 12-1 PM or
October 2 in Faculty Dining Room, 12-1 PM

If you talk while teaching, you'll benefit from the CTE's upcoming voice training workshop with Hollace Starr, assistant professor of Theatre at Seaver College. Starr, an accomplished actor and vocal coach, will help faculty learn to better use and care for their voices in the classroom. Listen to Hollace Starr explain the benefits of the training. Please register in advance.

To find more resources, visit the Center for Teaching Excellence

Research at Pepperdine

Every day, faculty, staff, and students are engaging in research and scholarship across disciplines. Below, explore faculty stories and potential funding opportunities, both internal and external.

Celebrating Newly Endowed Professors

Seaver College recognizes three new endowed professors—Joi Carr, Cynthia Colburn, and Roslyn Satchel—for their commitment to scholarship and their contributions to our community.

Read the Full Story

Funding Opportunities

Faculty Dependent Travel Care Initiative

Internal grant offered to support dependent care expenses during faculty travel to professional conferences or other professional development meeting. Applications are due Sep. 19. Learn More ►

Sabbatical and Research Fellowships

National Socio-Environmental Synthesis Center awards this grant to undertake activities that advance socio-environmental synthesis research. Applications due October 8. Learn More ►

Dialogues on the Experience of War

Sponsored by the National Endowment for the Humanities, supports the study of humanities sources about war to help veterans think deeply on their experiences. Applications due Oct. 8. Learn More ►

Climate Program Office

Supports competitive research in three major research areas to provide highest quality environmental information. Applications due Oct. 21. Learn More ►

California Documentary Project

Under the California Humanities, supports film, audio, and interactive documentary projects that provide depth and perspective. Applications are due Oct. 24. Learn More ►

Waves Weekend

Join the Pepperdine community at Waves Weekend this October 11-13! Dean Feltner has offered to cover the cost of faculty registration with code WW19FACULTY at check-out. New to this weekend's schedule is the Faculty Presentation by Paul Contino and Cynthia Colburn and the Dean's Reception in Weisman Museum.

Register

First Wave Ambassadors

Let your students know about new resources available for first-gen college students! The First Wave Program continues to support first-generation college students with the addition of three First Wave Ambassadors. The ambassadors are fellow students specially trained to support their peers in their Pepperdine journey.

Learn More

Inauguration Events this Week

SEP Word of Welcome through Spoken and Written Word

18 Hahn Fireside Room, 11:30 AM

SEP Why Faith-Based Educations with Rabbi David Wolpe

18 Raitt Recital Hall, 5 PM

SEP Developing Globally-Minded Students

19 Kresge Reading Room, 1 PM

SEP Seaver Showcase of Student Scholarship

19 Surfboard Room, 3 – 5 PM

SEP Natural Science Showcase: Beyond the Classroom

20 Rockwell Academic Center and Keck Science Center, 2 – 4 PM

More Events

24255 Pacific Coast Highway, Malibu, CA 90263 | Phone: 310.506.4000

Copyright © %xtyear% Pepperdine University | Privacy Policy

This email was sent to %Email%.

Manage Preferences | Unsubscribe