

Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution
Pepperdine University School of Law

Certificate in Conflict Management

The Certificate in Conflict Management is a 14-16 unit program offered to Seaver College students. It consists of the following:

Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution – Required Courses – 4 units

LAW 1492	Negotiation Theory and Practice
LAW 1422	Mediation Theory and Practice

Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution – Elective Courses – 2 courses (4 units)

LAW 1902	Cross-Cultural Conflict and Dispute Resolution
LAW 1282	Dispute Resolution and Religion
LAW 1242	Environmental and Public Policy Dispute Resolution
LAW 2392	Faith-Based Diplomacy and International Peacemaking
LAW 2108	Restorative Justice
LAW 2282	Selected Issues in Dispute Resolution: Apology, Forgiveness, and Reconciliation Dispute Resolution Systems Design Managing Litigation and Conflict for Corps. and Orgs. Ombuds

Seaver College of Arts and Letters – Elective Courses – 2 courses (6-8 units)

BA 352	Management Theory & Practice
BA 354	Human Resource Management
BA 358	Legal Regulatory Environment of Business
BA 366	Organizational Behavior
COM 313	Intercultural Communications
COM 385	Argumentation & Advocacy
COM 483	Small Group Communication
COM/INTS 514	International Communication & Negotiation
COM 519	Communication & Conflict
PHIL 290	Logic
PHIL 410	Business Ethics
POSC/INTS 344	International Relations
POSC 424	The Legislative Process
POSC 426	Jurisprudence & the Judicial Process
POSC 533	Constitutional Law
PSYCH 333/SOC 424	Social Psychology
PSYCH 342	Cognitive Process
PSYCH 432	Family Therapy
PSYCH 433	Industrial/Organizational Psychology
REL 524	Christian Ethics

Please email Seth Hackett at seth.hackett@pepperdine.edu with any questions.