

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS FOR STUDENTS

MONDAY, AUGUST 22

10 AM-2 PM	International Student Check-In and Move-In	Upper Mullin Town Square
	Head to the Seaver Main Lot to check-in for orientation. Receive your orientation materials, pick up your ID card, clear any outstanding issues with the Health Center, and then move into your residence hall. If you are living on campus, your resident advisor will be in the hall to greet you, and orientation leaders and ambassadors will help you move in your belongings.
2-4 PM	Get Settled	Living Area
	Take this time to start setting up your room and adjusting to your new home. Make a list of items you still need to prepare for your shopping excursion later this evening.
4:30-7:30 PM	International Student Dinner Excursion	Seaver Main Lot
	The Office of International Student Services will treat you to a meal at In-N-Out Burger, a popular Southern California dinner location. Afterward, you will go to Target, an affordable department store, where you can buy necessities for your room. Be on time, so you don't miss the shuttle. Note: Due to space limitations, this excursion is reserved for those students and family members who registered. Unregistered students may be considered if space is available.
6-8 PM	Late Registration and Check-In	Howard A. White Center
	If you experienced flight delays and missed International Student Check-In and Move-In, please stop by the Howard A. White Center (HAWC). Our team will be there to assist you with getting settled and prepared for International New Student Orientation on Tuesday morning.
8 PM	Paint Night Social	Howard A. White Center
	Join Intercultural Affairs (ICA) for a paint night on the first floor of the Howard A. White Center (HAWC), room 130. Come relax, paint, listen to music, get to know your fellow international students, and meet some of the ICA staff. Note: Due to space and supply limitations, all students must register in advance.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 23

7:30 AM-4:30 PM	Domestic Student Check-In and Move-In	Rho Parking Lot
	Receive your orientation materials, pick up your ID card, clear any outstanding issues with the Health Center, and then move into your residence hall. If you are living on campus, your resident advisor will be in the hall to greet you, and orientation leaders will help you move in your belongings.
10 AM-2 PM	International New Student Orientation	Payson Library, Surfboard Room
	International students, join us for a day of important information and social connections. These sessions are required. Attendance will be taken and lunch will be provided. Note: For details about the international student orientation schedule, consult the insert in the front of your orientation program guide. Due to space restrictions, this session is for students only.
	Stacey Chen, Associate Director, International Student Advising and Compliance, International Student Services Scot McClamma, International Recruitment Manager, International Student Services Brooke O'Donnell Mitchell, Director, International Student Services
Noon-2 PM	Lunch	Adamson Plaza
	Student meal plan begins. Be sure to bring your ID card.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS FOR STUDENTS

4-5 PM	Pre-Health Programs	Lindhurst Theatre
	As a pre-health student (those seeking careers in any of the following areas: medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine, physician assistant, nursing, pharmacy, physical therapy, etc.), you should attend this important session. We will cover the necessary classes and timelines of all pre-health majors as well as how different majors can affect your pre-health coursework. Getting started with the right courses for your career choice is important, especially if you want to go overseas next year. We also create an email list from those who attend so that you can start receiving information that will help you find volunteer work, employment, and learn about other opportunities, such as the University of California, Davis, AMSA conference in October. Current pre-health students will be present to assist in planning your first-year classes, discuss volunteer opportunities, and give you the inside scoop on what it is like to be a pre-health student. Note: Your dinnertime will be at 6 PM regardless of what the back of your name tag shows.
4-6 PM	Financial Accounting Competency Exam	Center for Communication and Business, Room 100
	An exam that assesses if students who have taken financial accounting at another institution have acquired the skills necessary to proceed to classes that require AC 224 as a prerequisite. Students who pass this exam will not be required to take AC 224 to be fully admitted to their major. Note: Your dinnertime will be at 6 PM regardless of what the back of your name tag shows.
4-7:30 PM	Music Auditions	Music Building
	Concert Choir and Chamber Choir	Room 220
	An audition sign-up sheet will be posted on the choir room door (MB 220). Choir is open to all Pepperdine students, and nonmajors are encouraged to audition. The audition is short and simple. No preparation is required. You will be asked to demonstrate your vocal range through the singing of scales and about your previous singing experience. The touring Chamber Choir is a smaller, advanced ensemble that tours regularly and performs for important University events. If you are interested in auditioning for the Chamber Choir, please inform Ryan Board during your Concert Choir audition. Fall Choir Schedule: Concert Choir: Monday/Thursday, 4-4:50 PM Chamber Choir: Monday/Thursday, 4:55-5:30 PM and Wednesday, Noon-1:30 PM
	Voice Teacher Placement	Room 231
	Immediately following choir auditions, all first-year, transfer, and vocal majors and minors should proceed to Louise Lofquist's studio (MB 231). Be prepared to sing one art song or an aria. Other students who wish to take private voice should also follow this process.
	Instrumental Auditions	Room 118
	An audition sign-up sheet will be posted outside Music Building, Room 118 throughout the orientation week. Ensembles: Positions in the orchestra, wind ensemble, jazz band, and chamber ensembles are open to all students. If you have not yet auditioned, you will need to prepare scales, a short (three-to-five minute) solo piece demonstrating your abilities, and a standard orchestral excerpt of your choice. Music scholarship recipients need not re-audition for the ensembles. Lessons: Students who wish to take private lessons on a musical instrument should sign up for an audition. You will be asked to play scales and a short (three-to-five minute) solo piece. For those who are beginners, you will be asked a few questions during this meeting, and referred to the respective faculty members. Please direct any questions related to instrumental ensembles or lessons to Dr. Pierre Tang at longtao.tang@pepperdine.edu.
4-7:30 PM	Theatre Auditions	Cultural Arts Center, Room 204
	Students wanting to declare a theatre major (acting, directing, musical theatre, production/design, or theatre and screen arts) must audition/interview before they can be admitted to the major. Please contact Hollace Starr (hollace.starr@pepperdine.edu) to sign up for an audition. Approximately two-thirds of all theatre majors receive a theatre scholarship. Information about auditioning for the theatre program may be found on the Pepperdine Theatre Program website.
5-6 PM	Student-Athlete Informational Gathering	Firestone Fieldhouse Lobby
	This session is designed for all incoming NCAA student-athletes to meet and interact with each other and athletics staff.
5-6:30 PM	Dinner	Adamson Plaza
	Connect with your family members during dinner. Before you eat dinner, swipe your ID card in the Adamson Plaza food line and then sit together anywhere with your family to go over the day's activities. To ensure seating, please arrive at dinner by the specified time on the back of your name tag.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS FOR STUDENTS

3:30–5:20 PM Life Outside the Classroom: Enhancing Your College Experience..... Various locations
During this time you will attend sessions that highlight all the opportunities for involvement, including service, student organizations, and employment on campus.

3:30–4 PM Life Outside the Classroom – Session I

Express Yourself

The Communication Division offers opportunities for all students in a wide range of co-curricular programs. These include: Entertainment Media—working as production, programming, or talent for TV-32 television, YouTube, and/or KWVS radio, NewsWaves—a 30-minute student-produced news program that is broadcast twice weekly to the Malibu and Calabasas communities on Channel 32 and online; Pepperdine Graphic Media—which includes the Graphic, our weekly campus newspaper and website; Currents magazine; “GNews,” our weekly video digital news highlight show; Advertising, our student-run advertising office; our @peppgraphic social media platforms; and the Waves Debate Team—offering students the opportunity to compete locally, nationally, and globally in various styles of debate. Center for Communication and Business, Room 140

Performance and Exhibition Opportunities

You don't have to be an art or performance major to be a star. Many opportunities await you in the fine arts: learn about our theatre productions, Pepperdine Improv Troupe, instrumental ensembles, studio art club, Art History Society, opera, choir, and other singing groups Cultural Arts Center, Room 214

Expressionists Student Literary Magazine

Expressionists is Pepperdine's student-run literary and arts magazine. All students interested in creative writing or publishing are welcome to join the staff and gain valuable experience in literary publishing: screening, advertising, making policies, and final design, as well as planning for several sponsored student readings each year. The year's work culminates in the spring publication of our annual magazine focused exclusively on student writing and artwork. Cultural Arts Center, Room 123

Student Employment: Giving Your Future a Strong Start

Employment at Pepperdine will allow you to engage in meaningful work, develop essential employment skills, and begin building your resume. Black Family Plaza Classroom, Room 191

International Programs: Meet the IP Student Ambassadors

Join us for a special opportunity to meet students who spent an entire year studying abroad. They will share experiences of choosing a program, applying, and living at one of our global campuses. Come learn how students are now thriving after traveling the world. Discover why studying abroad is a Wave tradition.

Appleby Center, Room 290

4:10–4:40 PM Life Outside the Classroom – Session II

During this session, all sessions will happen. Please see both session I and session III for descriptions of each session.

4:50–5:20 PM Life Outside the Classroom – Session III

Service and Social Justice at Pepperdine

Service is an integral part of life at Pepperdine. It shapes your learning, introduces you to new people, and connects you to our community. Make your Pepperdine experience more meaningful by spending time in community engagement, service, and justice opportunities. Black Family Plaza Classroom, Room 188

Spiritual Life Opportunities

Spiritual Life Advisor program, University Church of Christ, and The Hub for Spiritual Life staff will be present to share about opportunities for leadership and faith development. Black Family Plaza Classroom, Room 190

Campus Life and Student Leadership Opportunities: Making a Difference

Hear from the four organizations that receive a portion of your Campus Life fee: Student Government Association, Inter-Club Council, Student Programming Board, and Student Wellness Advisory Board. Student leaders will tell you how you can make a difference and get involved. Black Family Plaza Classroom, Room 189

Fraternity and Sorority Life 101

Are fraternities and sororities “all Greek to you?” Representatives from our fraternity and sorority communities will guide you through the recruitment process, share about the many benefits of membership, and answer your questions. Elkins Auditorium

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS FOR STUDENTS

Campus Recreation: Intramural and Club Sports, Fitness Programs and Facilities, and Outdoor Recreation

Campus Recreation provides many fun ways for you to play and stay fit. Come learn about all that we offer, find the activities you love to do, and keep yourself healthy throughout your college career. Your brain works best when your body works hard! Appleby Center, Room 263

VR and Board Games at Payson Library

Bring your A game to Payson Library for an afternoon of drop-in fun. Try out virtual reality games at the Genesis Lab or enjoy more traditional board games like Scrabble, Monopoly, or Apples to Apples. And don't forget to scope out Payson Library resources while you're here, because you will be using them over the next four years. Meet at the Genesis Lab on the second floor of Payson Library.
