Music Auditions

Music Building

Concert Choir and Chamber Choir

Room 220

An audition sign-up sheet will be posted on the choir room door (MB 220). Choir is open to all Pepperdine students, and non-majors are encouraged to audition. The audition is short and simple. No preparation is required. You will be asked to demonstrate your vocal range through the singing of scales, and there will be a basic assessment of your sight-reading abilities, and you will be asked to sing through a piece you already know such as "America the Beautiful" or "Amazing Grace." The touring Chamber Choir is a smaller advanced ensemble that tours regularly and performs for important University events. If you are interested in auditioning for the Chamber Choir, please inform Dr. Board during your Concert Choir audition.

Fall Choir Schedule:

Concert Choir: Monday/Thursday, 4-4:50 PM

Chamber Choir: Monday/Thursday, 4:55-5:30 PM and Wednesday, Noon-1:30 PM

Voice Teacher Placement

Room 138

Immediately following choir auditions, all first-year, transfer, and vocal major and minors should proceed to Dr. Keith Colclough's studio (MB 138). Be prepared to sing one art song or an aria. Other students who wish to take private voice should also follow this process.

Instrumental

Room 118

An audition sign-up sheet will be posted on MB 118.

All first-year and transfer instrumental major and minor students receiving a music award must audition. Other students who wish to take private lessons and/or participate in performing ensembles should follow this process.

You will be asked to play scales, and a solo piece you know. Positions in the orchestra, wind ensemble, jazz band, chamber ensembles are open to all students.

5 - 6 PM

Life Outside the Classroom – Session I

Express Yourself

There are opportunities for all students in a wide range of Communication Division co-curricular programs. These include:

Entertainment Media - working as production, programming, or talent for TV-32 television, YouTube, and/or KWVS 101.5 FM radio; NewsWaves - a 30-minute student-produced news program that is broadcast twice weekly to the Malibu and Calabasas communities on Channel 32 and online; Pepperdine Graphic Media - which includes the Graphic, our weekly campus newspaper and website; Currents magazine; GNews, our weekly video digital news highlight show; Advertising, our student-run advertising office; our @peppgraphic social media platforms; and The Waves Debate Team - offers students the opportunity to compete locally, nationally, and globally in British Parliamentary style debate, and participate in debate outreach programs on and off campus. Center for Communication and Business, Room 140

Performance and Exhibition Opportunities

You don't have to be an art or performance major to be a star. Many opportunities await you in the fine arts: theatre productions, Pepperdine Improv Troupe, instrumental groups, visual art clubs, opera, choir, and other singing groups.

Cultural Arts Center, Room 214

Art Exhibitions and Live Theatre Performances on Campus

The arts are alive at Pepperdine. Throughout the year, the Center for the Arts brings to campus professional productions of theatre, music, and dance, as well as art exhibitions. The Art and Art History Lecture Series invites leading scholars, artists, and critics to speak about visual culture.

Weisman Museum

Expressionists* Student Literary Magazine

Expressionists is Pepperdine's student-run literary and arts magazine. All students interested in creative writing or publishing are welcome to join the staff and gain valuable experience in literary publishing: screening, advertising, making policies, and final design, as well as planning for several sponsored student readings each year. The year's work culminates in the spring publication of our annual magazine focused exclusively on student writing and artwork.

Cultural Arts Center, Room 123

Service and Social Justice at Pepperdine
