

PEPPERDINE

New Student Orientation

MISSION STATEMENT

New Student Orientation facilitates a successful college transition by introducing new students and families to Pepperdine's engaging campus community, academic environment, Christian mission, and support resources in a welcoming atmosphere conducive to building new relationships.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

A student who participates in New Student Orientation should be able to:

1. Cultivate a sense of community
2. Make informed decisions about academic choices
3. Locate and utilize campus services and resources
4. Discover opportunities available outside the classroom
5. Understand the nature and importance of Pepperdine's Christian faith and heritage
6. Develop a growing love and pride for Pepperdine
7. Feel reassured about the decision to attend Pepperdine for his or her college education

AS A CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY, PEPPERDINE AFFIRMS:

That God is
That God is revealed uniquely in Christ
That the educational process may not, with impunity, be divorced from the divine process
That the student, as a person of infinite dignity, is the heart of the educational enterprise
That the quality of student life is a valid concern of the University
That truth, having nothing to fear from investigation,
should be pursued relentlessly in every discipline
That spiritual commitment, tolerating no excuse for mediocrity, demands the highest standards of academic excellence
That freedom, whether spiritual, intellectual, or economic, is indivisible
That knowledge calls, ultimately, for a life of service.

Welcome

Dear Student,

Welcome to the Pepperdine community! Whether you are a first-year or transfer student coming from near or far, New Student Orientation (NSO) provides you with a wealth of information on University services and programs that will help you during your journey at Pepperdine. During NSO you will also start forming lifetime friendships with faculty, staff, and fellow students. Helping facilitate NSO are student leaders who have already demonstrated student success and are committed to the intellectual, spiritual, and social life of the campus.

We also would like to introduce you and your family to the Seaver College Parents Program, which is an active group of parents who participate in the orientation program, serve on advisory committees, assist with recruitment activities, and support other families.

Speaking of families, please mark October 14–16, 2016, on your calendar for our annual Waves Weekend, which promises to be a memorable weekend with your family as you introduce them to your new life at Pepperdine.

During NSO you will also meet members of the Pepperdine alumni association who return to their alma mater as alumni to help you with the transition to college. One of the things I hope you notice right away is that Pepperdine is full of caring people who want you to succeed—academically, socially, and spiritually.

Again, welcome to Pepperdine!

Classes Begin!

Welcome

Dear Pepperdine Family Member,

Welcome to the Pepperdine community! As family of a new student at Pepperdine, you are vital partners to ensure the educational success and personal growth of your student at this exciting new stage of life.

New Student Orientation (NSO) provides you with an introduction to the University's academic requirements and expectations, community standards, campus safety, technology resources, international programs, and vital student support services and resources. Helping facilitate NSO are student leaders who have already demonstrated student success and are committed to the intellectual, spiritual, and social life of the campus.

NSO provides a wealth of information on University services and programs that will help you support your child during his or her journey at Pepperdine. We welcome your questions, comments, and concerns, so we have included contact information for the program presenters. Please call or e-mail if you have any questions.

We also would like to introduce you to the Seaver College Parents Program, which is an active group of families who participate in the orientation program, serve on advisory committees, assist with recruitment activities, and support other families. We invite you to become involved in this important group. Your participation will provide positive support to students and other families during their educational experience. Be sure to connect with members of the Parents Program during NSO to learn about the numerous opportunities available for you to play an active role in the life of the University.

Lastly, please mark October 14–16, 2016, on your calendar for our 27th annual Waves Weekend, which promises to be a memorable weekend with your son or daughter as you take an interactive glimpse into life at Pepperdine.

Again, welcome to Pepperdine!

Mark Davis

WAVES LINGO

WHEN THEY SAY... WHAT DO THEY MEAN?

AC: Appleby Center is a building where many classes are held, near the Weisman Museum of Art. This building has two floors. When you are on the second floor, you are in Appleby Center (AC). When you go to the downstairs floor of this building, you will be in Rockwell Academic Center (RAC), which can also be accessed between Elkins and Keck Science Center.

BPC: Black Family Plaza Classrooms, named after Joyce and Stanley Black, is the building which is adjacent to Elkins Auditorium. It is home to many academic classes. You can also find the Campus Ministry office located here.

Brock House: This is where the president of Pepperdine University and his family live. The house is on the top of the hill where you can see the big American flag. Our University president is Andrew Benton and his wife's name is Debby.

CAC: Cultural Arts Center, the classroom building between the Weisman Museum and Smothers Theatre. It is also the building you can walk through to get to main campus from Dorm Road (aka "Lower Residence Road").

The Caf: The short name for the Waves Cafe, located on the bottom level of the Tyler Campus Center (TCC) and serving great food every day. There are a lot of other great food options such as: La Brea Bakery, Jamba Juice, and Nature's Edge.

CCB: Center for Communication and Business, which can be found at the top of the hill above the HAWC and Upper Residence Road. It includes classrooms and offices and offers food services for Pepperdine's two largest majors, Communication and Business. You can walk up Seaver Drive toward the School of Law, take the stairs by Towers and Peppers Hall, or use the Waves Shuttle that stops right outside the front doors of the building.

Convo: The Convocation Series consists of a variety of chapel programs each dedicated to strengthening faith, character, and Christian living. These range from chapel to one-on-one spiritual mentoring, small groups and more. Through these programs, you will have an opportunity to engage different perspectives on personal and contemporary issues, as well as learn more about how to make a difference in the world.

Elkins Auditorium: Elkins will be the home of most of your larger lecture classes. It is also a popular place to watch movies hosted by the Student Programming Board. It is located in the heart of Mullin Town Square adjacent to Joslyn Plaza.

Fireside Room: Multipurpose room located in the corner of the cafeteria by La Brea Bakery.

Firestone Fieldhouse: The place where some of the Waves compete and where Wednesday morning Chapel is held. The weight room is located downstairs.

HAC: Huntsinger Academic Complex includes Payson Library and the Pendleton Learning Center.

The HAWC: Opened in 1995, this building was named after Dr. Howard A. White, the fifth president of Pepperdine, hence the initials HAWC (C is for Center). It is a popular student hangout, open 24 hours during the regular school year for you to play pool, buy food, or watch TV. This building houses Student Activities, Campus Recreation, and the Office of Student Diversity and Inclusion. Also, the "HAWC stairs" (the set of stairs just outside the HAWC that go up to Seaver Drive) are a convenient location to meet friends when you live in the halls closer to main campus.

KSC: The Keck Science Center is the building that is an annex to the RAC and AC and includes classrooms, conference rooms, and laboratory teaching areas.

MB: Music Building, which is located next to Smother's Theatre, is home to our music department. You can be sure to find students singing or playing instruments whether that be in the hallways or the many practice rooms.

OneStop: OneStop is an office dedicated to serving you and any needs you may have. You can get information about your financial aid, registration, student account, etc., as well as purchase discounted movie and amusement park tickets. OneStop is located on the 2nd floor of the TAC (the floor on ground level).

PLC: To find the Pendleton Learning Center, there is a door just to the left of the library entrance that will take you there. Another entrance is by the top of amphitheatre. The PLC is currently closed for the Payson Library renovations.

RA: Resident Advisor. Your RA is an all around "go-to person" if you ever need help with anything related to campus living. Be sure to get to know your RA and utilize him or her as an important resource.

RAC: Rockwell Academic Center is the bottom floor to Appleby Center (AC). The Natural Science Division is housed here along with classrooms and science labs.

Rho: Pronounced "row," this is the big parking lot just past the intersection of Dorm Road and Upper Residence Road at the far end of campus. It is where you checked in for New Student Orientation and is the most common place for students to park their cars on campus.

The Rock: Student groups are welcome to paint the Rock, which is located down in Adamson Plaza just outside of the bookstore. Students paint the Rock to advertise their organization, group, or an event, or just to show Pepperdine pride.

SAC: The Seaver Academic Complex is the set of buildings just up the hill from the CCB where the International Studies and Languages Division holds its classes. There is a shuttle stop just outside the building.

Sandbar: On the top level of the Tyler Campus Center (TCC), the Sandbar houses student mailboxes, computers, and Jamba Juice.

Seaver College: This is Pepperdine's college of letters, arts, and sciences. It is one of five colleges that make up Pepperdine University. The other colleges are: the School of Law, the Graziadio School of Business Management (GSBM), the Graduate School of Education and Psychology (GSEP), and the School of Public Policy (SPP).

SLA: Spiritual Life Advisor. Your SLA is a good spiritual resource if you ever need to just chat about life, struggles, or need someone to pray with. Conversations with the SLA are confidential.

Student Activities: This office is located in the Howard A. White Center. It is home to all student activities, events, and organizations. The advisors and the student office for Student Government, Student Clubs and Organizations, and the Student Programming Board can be found here, along with staff involved with New Student Orientation, Waves Weekend, Songfest, and Dance in Flight.

TAC: Thornton Administrative Center is the building next to the library and the first building you see when you arrive on Seaver Drive. It houses many of the administrative offices at Pepperdine (Office of the President, the Office of Admission, the Office of Financial Assistance, registrar, student accounts, etc.). Also note that "OneStop" is located on the 2nd floor.

TCC: Tyler Campus Center, the building that houses many of the offices and services you will visit the most. The TCC is home to the Waves Cafe (the "Caf"), the Sandbar, the mailroom, the Volunteer Center, the Career Center, Student Employment, Disability Services, International Programs, Counseling Center, and the Vice President for Student Life Office.

Clubs and Organizations (Inter-Club Council)

Over 70 student organizations exist within the Pepperdine Inter-Club Council (ICC). These organizations represent diverse student interests and leadership opportunities in several categories including academic, cultural/ethnic, political, professional, student-led ministry, athletic, and special interest groups. Each semester ICC allocates funding to its member organizations to subsidize a portion of their financial needs in creating a diverse and lively campus atmosphere. Students are highly encouraged to start a new club if they have an interest that is not currently represented within the existing ICC student organizations.

Students can now customize and track how they get involved on campus using the Pepperdine CollegiateLink system a.k.a. The Peppervine. Create an account and search through the organizations on campus, view current campus events, and create your own club. Use your Pepperdine credentials and login at vine.pepperdine.edu.
